child support

If you're an Australian citizen or permanent resident returning from overseas, you may be eligible for government payments and other support.

The easiest way to claim one of our payments is online.

Usually a person must be in Australia when they claim. However, we may accept your claim while you're overseas if you'll be eligible when you return to Australia.

To start a claim you need a myGov account. If you don't have one go to my.gov.au

We'll confirm your identity in person later.

Centrelink payments and concessions

We have a wide range of payments to help people based on their individual or family circumstances.

 To find out what you may be eligible for go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/servicefinder

If you need help you can call +613 6222 3455, Monday to Friday 8 am to 5 pm AEDT.

You may be able to call us for help with Centrelink using one of the free call numbers listed in the table on page 2.

Health care

You may be eligible for Medicare. Medicare can help you with the cost of seeing a doctor, getting medicines and mental health care.

 For more information go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/medicare or call +612 8633 3284, Monday to Friday 9 am to 5 pm AEDT.

Child Support

We can give you information about financial help and wellbeing support for families who are separated or going through separation.

 For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/childsupport or call +61 131 272 Monday to Friday 8:30 am to 7:45 pm AEDT.

Social work services

Our social workers can help you with short-term counselling, information and referrals to support services.

 For more information go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/socialwork or call +613 6222 3455, Monday to Friday 8:00 am to 5:00 pm AEDT and ask to speak to a social worker.

Information in your language

If you need to speak to us in your language, call the numbers listed and ask for an interpreter. We provide them free of charge.

 To read, listen to or watch information in your language go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/yourlanguage
