Financial assistance for students

The Australian Government provides financial help to eligible students through payments such as Youth Allowance and Austudy. These payments are administered by the Department of Human Services.

Youth Allowance

Youth Allowance is a payment for people aged 16 to 24 who are studying full time, doing a full-time Australian Apprenticeship, looking for work, or are sick.

Austudy

Austudy is a payment for people aged 25 or over who are studying full time or doing a full-time Australian Apprenticeship.

Pensioner Education Supplement

The Pensioner Education Supplement helps with the costs of study for students getting a payment from the Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Student Start-up Loan

The Student Start-up Loan is a voluntary loan for eligible full-time students who get Youth Allowance or Austudy. It is not paid automatically; you need to apply for it. You have to pay the loan back once you start earning a certain amount of income.

Relocation Scholarship

The Relocation Scholarship is an annual payment to help eligible students receiving Youth Allowance who need to live away from their family home while studying.

Other assistance

If you receive Youth Allowance, Austudy, or the Pensioner Education Supplement, you may also be eligible for:

Education Entry Payment

The Education Entry Payment helps with the costs of study or training to improve your skills and qualifications.

Fares Allowance

Fares Allowance helps with the costs of travel for tertiary students who have to live away from home to study.

Concessions and allowances

You may also be able to get other concessions and allowances such as a Health Care Card or Rent Assistance.
