Australian Government Disaster Recovery Payment

Australian Government Disaster Recovery Payment (AGDRP) is a one-off payment if you have been significantly affected by a notified disaster. It is not for partial or minor damage. If eligible, you will receive:

• $1,000 for each adult
• $400 for each child under 16 years.

Who can get AGDRP

To qualify for AGDRP, you must:

• be an Australian resident or have a valid visa
• in the disaster or at the time of social assistance
• 16 years or older
• meet the obligations of your local government (LGA).

You must also have suffered significant effects as a result of the disaster, for example:

• you have suffered serious injuries
• you are a member of a family or Australian resident who has died or gone missing
• this disaster has destroyed or damaged your main home
• this disaster has exposed your main home to significant risk
• a local government has declared your main home unsafe
• your main home has been contaminated
• a disaster has significantly damaged or destroyed your main home.

Requirements

If you are the primary care giver of a dependent child, the rules for a child under 16 years of age also apply. The primary care giver must have custody of the child, be responsible for their health and daily activities.

Australian Government Disaster Recovery Payment

The Australian Government Disaster Recovery Payment (AGDRP) is a one-off payment to help you if you are significantly affected by a declared disaster. It is not for minor damage or inconvenience.

How much you can get

If you are eligible you will get:

- $1,000 per adult
- $400 for each child younger than 16.

Who can get it

To get AGDRP you must:

- be an Australian resident or hold an eligible visa
- be 16 years or older at the time of the disaster or getting a social security payment
- meet Local Government Area (LGA) eligibility requirements.

You must have been adversely affected by a declared disaster. For example:

- you were seriously injured
- you are the immediate family member of an Australian citizen or resident who died or is missing
- the disaster destroyed your principal place of residence or it must be demolished
- there has been major damage to the interior of your principal place of residence
- the disaster has exposed the interior of your principal place of residence to the elements
- your principal place of residence has been declared structurally unsound
- sewage has contaminated the interior of your residence
- the disaster has destroyed or damaged a major asset or assets you own at your principal place of residence
- you are the principal carer of a dependent child who has experienced any of the above.

Definitions

- Your principal place of residence is the main place where you have a right or license to normally live. It doesn’t include holiday homes or investment properties.
- A major asset is an asset or assets with a combined market value of $20,000 or more. For example, this includes buildings, vehicles, caravans, water tanks or large scale machinery.
- You are a principal carer of a child if the child is your dependent and has not turned 16. The principal carer must have legal responsibility for the day-to-day care, welfare and development of the child.
How to claim

The fastest way to claim is online. You will need to set up a myGov account and link to Centrelink if you do not have one yet. Go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/mygovguides

If you need help with claiming, you can call 180 22 66. The phone line is open Monday to Friday, from 8 am to 5 pm local time. You can ask for an interpreter and we will arrange one for free.

If you are a member of a couple, you can both claim this payment. You and your partner must make separate claims.
