10 Read this before answering the following question.

It is your responsibility to give the correct numbers. Check that the Branch and Account numbers are correct. Incorrect numbers will delay payments.

If you are directing your AIC payments to a school or boarding institution, you do not need to provide their account details as we will obtain this information direct from the school or boarding institution.

Where do you want your payment made?

The account can be in your name or your Agent's name. A joint account is acceptable.

Declaration

12 I declare that:

- the information I have provided in this form is complete and correct.
- I must notify the Centrelink of any changes in my circumstances within 14 days of the change(s) occurring.

I understand that:

- I may need to provide further information if requested.
- personal information is protected by law and can be given to someone else only in very special circumstances, where Commonwealth legislation provides or where I give permission.
- Centrelink may use any information contained in this claim to determine eligibility for other payments.
- this will be assessed in conjunction with the original claim.
- Centrelink can make relevant enquiries to ensure I receive the correct entitlement.
- giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

AIC payments cannot start until this statement is signed and the form is returned to us.

An important note for Applicants

Any AIC debt will usually be recovered by reducing any remaining payments you may receive. If you are no longer receiving AIC, you will have to arrange to repay the debt directly to us. The debt is always recovered from the applicant, not from the agent/student who receives AIC.
