

Application for late lodgement of a Simplified Billing claim for assigned Medicare benefits (HW026)

When to use this form

Use this form to apply for late lodgement of a Simplified Billing claim for assigned Medicare benefits.

Important information

Subsection 20B(2)(b) of the Health Insurance Act 1973 provides that a claim for assigned Medicare benefits must be lodged with the Chief Executive Medicare within 2 years of the date of a professional service.

The Chief Executive Medicare (or their delegate) will not consider applications for late lodgement due to administrative error.

If the delegate approves the application for late lodgement, the claim will be processed using the details provided. If the application is not approved you will be advised in writing.
