Support for parents to care for a newborn or recently adopted child

We can help if you are taking time off work to care for a newborn or recently adopted child.

What you can get

Parental Leave Pay is a shared payment between parents that can help if you are taking time off work to care for a newborn or recently adopted child. You can choose to share and take your Parental Leave Pay in a way that works for you and your family.

Dad and Partner Pay was a payment for people with children born or adopted before 1 July 2023. It is no longer available. You can claim Parental Leave Pay instead.

Most people can claim up to 3 months before their baby's expected date of birth or adoption. We won't pay you until after your child is born or comes into your care.

Who can get Parental Leave Pay

To get Parental Leave Pay, you must be caring for your newborn or adopted child and be one of the following:

- · the birth mother of the newborn child
- the partner of the birth mother
- the biological father of the child
- the partner of the biological father of the child
- the adoptive parent of the child
- the partner of an adoptive parent
- a person caring for a child under exceptional circumstances, including caring for a child born of a surrogacy arrangement.

You also need to meet all of the following:

- an income test
- a work test
- · residence rules.

If you have a newborn, you must have registered or applied to register their birth with your state or territory birth registry.

How much Parental Leave Pay you can get

How many Parental Leave Pay days your family will get depends on your child's date of birth or adoption.

To get the full number of Parental Leave Pay days, both parents need to claim and be eligible

Child's date of birth or adoption is from	Your family can get up to
1 July 2023	100 days, or 20 weeks based on a 5 day work week
1 July 2024	110 days, or 22 weeks based on a 5 day work week
1 July 2025	120 days, or 24 weeks based on a 5 day work week
1 July 2026	130 days, or 26 weeks based on a 5 day work week

You can share some or all of your Parental Leave Pay with another parent, as long as you're both eligible.

If you have a partner, some days will be reserved for each of you to use. How many days you have reserved depends on your child's date of birth or adoption.

Child's date of birth or adoption is from	The number of days reserved for each of you is
1 July 2023	10 days
1 July 2024	10 days
1 July 2025	15 days
1 July 2026	20 days

You will need to decide how to use the rest of the days as a family.

If only one person in the couple is eligible, the reserved days will still apply. There are some exemptions to this. For example if you are experiencing family or domestic violence, if your child is unwell and needs to remain in hospital, or if your partner is in prison. There are other reasons you may have an exemption to this rule, if you think you have one you can call us to discuss.

If you have a partner, and you're both eligible, you can take some Parental Leave Pay days at the same time as them.

If your child's birth or adoption is:

- before 1 July 2025 you can take up to 10 days at the same time
- from 1 July 2025 you can take up to 20 days at the same time.

There are some exemptions to these limits. For example if the birth mother had a caesarean or your child developed an illness at birth. There are other reasons you may have an exemption, if you think you have one you can call us to discuss.

If you are the birth mother and a single parent, you can get all Parental Leave Pay days. However, if you choose, you can give approval to share days with another parent.

When you can get Parental Leave Pay

You can only get Parental Leave Pay on days that you:

- · are caring for that child
- · are on leave or not working
- · meet residence rules.

You can get your Parental Leave Pay as any of the following:

- a single block of days
- multiple smaller blocks of days
- single days

Services Australia

• a combination of smaller blocks and single days.

You can still get Parental Leave Pay if your child was stillborn or has died.

Parental Leave Pay is taxable. We also count Parental Leave Pay in the income test if you get an income support payment, such as Parenting Payment. This means if you get Parental Leave Pay your income support payment may reduce or stop.

How you will get Parental Leave Pay

Your Parental Leave Pay will be paid either by your employer or us, depending on your circumstances.

If your employer pays you, you will get your pay in your usual pay cycle. We will work this out with your employer.

If you do not get your Parental Leave Pay from your employer, or if you are self-employed, we will pay you directly every fortnight.

Work test for Parental Leave Pay

To get Parental Leave Pay you need to meet the work test.

You must have worked for at least 330 hours in 10 of the 13 months before the birth or adoption of your child.

Please note that 330 hours is around 1 day a week, we count 10 months as 295 days and 13 months as 392 days. You cannot have more than a 12 week gap between each work day.

If you do not meet the work test, in some special circumstances we may approve a different work test.

There are also some exceptions to the work test:

- premature birth
- pregnancy related illness and complications (birth mothers claiming Parental Leave Pay only)
- dangerous job provision (birth mothers claiming Parental Leave Pay only).

The dangerous jobs provision will apply if you had to stop work because there was a risk to your pregnancy. You will still need to meet the work test to get Parental Leave Pay.

How and when to claim Parental Leave Pay

1. Get a Customer Reference Number (CRN).

You will need to prove your identity to get a CRN. You can do this either online or over the phone. If you already have a CRN, use it to link your Centrelink online account to your myGov account.

2. Claim using your Centrelink online account through myGov.

You can do this up to 3 months before your child is expected to be born or adopted.

If you're the birth mother or first adoptive parent, you can choose to share some or all of your Parental Leave Pay with another parent.

If the other parent needs to approve sharing Parental Leave Pay days, they can do this online. They'll need to log into their Centrelink online account through myGov and review your request to share. They must do this before you can submit your claim.

For more information in English about myGov, go to my.gov.au

3. Give us proof of the date your child was born or adopted.

After the birth of your child you will get a Newborn Child Declaration form from your hospital or midwife. You can upload this form online.

You will also need to register the birth with the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registry in your state or territory.

To get Parental Leave Pay, at least one parent needs to claim within 52 weeks of the date the child was born or adopted. The other parent has 2 years to claim.

When you claim you will need to tell us when you want to get at least one day of Parental Leave Pay. If you are not sure when you want to take the rest, you can leave it in your balance. You can then share it with another parent or use it later. You must use all of your Parental Leave Pay within 2 years of the date your child was born or adopted.

Other entitlements

If you cannot get Parental Leave Pay, you may get Newborn Upfront Payment and Newborn Supplement. You may get these payments if you are getting Family Tax Benefit Part A. For more information in English, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/newbornsupplement

If you cannot get Parental Leave Pay and your child is stillborn, you may get Stillborn Baby Payment. For more information in English, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/stillbornpayment

Parental Leave Pay will not change any of your workplace leave entitlements.

To arrange leave, you will need to talk to your employer. You should try to do this at least 10 weeks before you intend to take leave.

You may be able to get unpaid parental leave from your employer. This is if you have worked continuously for your employer for 12 months or more.
