If you disagree with a Centrelink debt

Generally, you can ask for an explanation or apply for a formal review of your debt at any time. Some debts have different time limits for you to apply for a formal review. You can read more about time limits below.

| Payment type | Formal review time limits |
|----------------------------------|--|
| Assistance for Isolated Children | You must apply for a formal review within 3 months from the date we made our decision. |
| Tertiary Access Payment | You must apply for a formal review within 13 weeks from when we tell you about the decision. |

If you have a debt, you can ask us to pause your repayments until your explanation or formal review is complete. You can do this when you talk to us about a decision.

Time limits when applying for a formal review

You should apply for a formal review within 13 weeks from the date we tell you about the decision.

Some payments have different time limits for you to apply for a formal review. This applies to both claim and entitlement decisions.

You can still apply for a formal review after your payment review time limit. However, if the decision is changed, you may only get your payment from the date you apply for the formal review.

You can read more about time limits below.

| Assistance for Isolated Children Scheme | You can apply for a formal review at any time.
If the decision is about the recovery of a debt, you must apply for a formal review within 3 months from the date we made the decision. |

If you disagree with a formal review outcome

If you disagree with a formal review outcome of a Centrelink decision, you can ask the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART) to review it. The ART is an independent tribunal.

The ART has 2 review levels. This means if you disagree with the ART's first review, you can apply for a second review.

If you are applying to the ART, you can ask us to pause your debt repayments until the ART's first review is complete.

There may be a different review and appeal process if the decision relates to the following payments:

- Assistance for Isolated Children
- Rural ex-gratia payment.

When to apply to the ART

You should apply within 13 weeks from the date of our formal review decision. You can still apply for an ART review after 13 weeks. However, if the ART changes the decision, you may only get your payment from the date you applied for the review.

If you want a review of a Paid Parental Leave Scheme decision, you should apply within 28 days of our formal review decision.

How to apply to the ART

To apply for an ART review of a decision, go to art.gov.au and follow their instructions.

After you submit an application, we will send the ART a statement. It will contain the reasons for the decision and relevant agency documents. You will also get a copy of our statement and documents.

If you disagree with the ART's first review, you may be able to apply for a second ART review. You should make an application for a second ART review within 28 days of receiving the first review decision.

What are the costs?

For some types of decisions, there may be an ART application fee.

We cannot help you with the costs of applying for an ART review. The ART also cannot award you costs if you are successful.

If your review with the ART is unsuccessful, we do not ask you to pay our costs.
