Changes to Special Benefit reviews

About Special Benefit

We review your Special Benefit to make sure you can still get the payment and the right amount.

To be eligible for Special Benefit, you must be:

- holding an approved temporary visa, or be an Australian citizen or Australian resident
- in Australia unless you are travelling for an approved reason
- unable to get another income support payment
- unable to earn enough to support you and your family.

What you need to do

We have changed the way we review Special Benefit. You no longer need to complete a Special Benefit review every 13 weeks. We will let you know if we need any information from you. You do not need to do anything unless your situation changes.

If your situation changes

You only need to contact us if there is a change in your situation that could reduce, increase or stop your Special Benefit payment. You must tell us within 14 days when something changes. This includes if any of these details change for you or your partner:

- name
- if you no longer have a partner or you have a new partner
- address
- you sell the home that you live in
- income
- whether or not you have to lodge a tax return
- the amount of time you care or share the care for a child
- you are sick or injured and cannot do your usual work or study load, and can give us a medical certificate
- work or study load
- visa subclass.

We may also choose you at random to review your and your partner's payment details. This is part of our Payment Accuracy reviews.

Note: calls from your home phone to '13' numbers from anywhere in Australia are charged at a fixed rate. That rate may vary from the price of a local call and may also vary between telephone service providers. Calls to '1800' numbers from your home phone are free. Calls from public and mobile phones may be timed and charged at a higher rate.
