Your income details

Income is not restricted to taxable income and includes any money received, earned or derived for personal use or benefit, or any periodic payment by way of gift or allowance.

Salary sacrifice/Salary packaging includes any benefit received as part of earned income but not as a wage or salary (for example, novated lease, use of a car as part of a salary package).

Interest and dividends include any income you receive from cash deposits, shares, managed investments and forestry managed investment schemes.

Foreign income includes any income you receive from outside Australia.

Regular payments include compensation and rehabilitation payments, allowances, or gifts.

Other income includes any other income you receive that is not listed below (for example, personal income derived from self employment, royalties).

 You must provide evidence of your income and accounts, for example, copies of your last 2 payslips and the past 3 months of bank statements for all personal accounts, including loan and credit card accounts.

20 Provide details of your income

32 Read this before answering the following question.

The current market value of an item is what you would get if you sold it. It is not the replacement or insured value.

Include:

- all furniture (including soft furnishings such as curtains)
- antiques and works of art
- electrical appliances such as televisions and fridges
- jewellery for personal use and hobby collections (for example, stamps, coins).

Do not include:

- fixtures such as stoves and built-in items.
