When to use this form

Use this form if you are in need of financial support because you have been informed by a health official to self-isolate or quarantine because of the following reasons:

- you have tested positive with COVID-19
- you have been in close contact with a person who has tested positive with COVID-19
- you care for a child, 16 years or under, who has tested positive with COVID-19
- you care for a child, 16 years or under, who has been in close contact with a person who has tested positive with COVID-19.

You can also use this form if you are caring for someone (other than a child) who has tested positive with COVID-19.

For more information, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/disaster

If you have been informed by a health official to self-isolate or quarantine, you would have been contacted directly by phone, email, SMS or letter from:

- QLD Health, or
- a person who is employed by a state or regional department of health.

Who is eligible to receive this payment?

You may be eligible to receive this payment if you:

- are aged 17 years and over
- are an Australian resident or the holder of an eligible visa
- live in Queensland
- were informed to self-isolate or quarantine, or are caring for someone who has tested positive with COVID-19
- were likely to have worked during the period of self-isolation, quarantine or caring for someone who has tested positive with COVID-19
- are not able to work and are not receiving any income, earnings or salary from employment
- have no appropriate leave entitlement left (including any special pandemic leave) or your employer is not able to pay your leave entitlements due to their financial hardship. Appropriate leave includes:
  - sick leave
  - leave for the purposes of caring for another person (personal leave or carer's leave)
  - pandemic leave
- have not received the Queensland Hardship Payment for the same 14 day period
- are not receiving the JobKeeper Payment or an Australian Government income support payment, ABSTUDY Living Allowance, Paid Parental Leave or Dad and Partner Pay.

How much will I be paid?

The Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment is a lump sum payment of $1,500.

One lump sum payment is payable per person for each 14 day period of directed quarantine or self-isolation or caring. The 14 day period or part thereof must fall on or after 7 October 2020.

A separate application must be made for each 14 day period being claimed. Each applicant must apply separately.

The Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment is exempt from all Australian Government means testing.

Is this payment taxable?

The Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment is taxable.

This means you will need to include it in your 2020-21 income tax return.

If you get family assistance, you will need to include the Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment in your family income estimate as taxable income.

You need to do this if you or your partner get:

- Family Tax Benefit
- Child Care Subsidy.

The easiest way to view and update your family income estimate is online. You can use your Centrelink online account through myGov or the Centrelink Express Plus mobile app.

If you have a child support assessment, the payment will form part of your adjusted taxable income for Child Support. It must be included in any income estimate you lodge for the 2020-21 financial year. The easiest way to view and update your information is online. You can use your Child Support online account through myGov or the Child Support Express Plus mobile app.

How will payments be made?

Payments will be made to a nominated account held in your name. A joint account is acceptable. If you do not have an account, contact Services Australia on 180 22 66 for alternative arrangements.

How long do I have to claim?

For details on closing dates for this payment, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/disaster

What I may need to provide

You may need to provide one document showing your proof of birth or proof of arrival in Australia or any other approved documents that add up to the value of 50 points. For example, driver licence (40 points), bank or financial institution card (40 points).

You may also need to provide additional evidence that you are eligible for this payment, for example:

- proof of your residential address
- proof of employment such as payslips or letter of employment
- evidence of instructions from the state or territory government to quarantine or self-isolate
- proof of a positive test result for COVID-19.

If you cannot provide any of the above information to us with your claim, you should submit this claim without delay and provide the supporting documents to us within 28 days.
