

Application for a Public Key Infrastructure Site Certificate (HW001)

When to use this form

Use this form to apply for a Services Australia Public Key Infrastructure (PKI) Site Certificate.

Documents needed to prove identity and relationship

To get a site PKI you need to provide your 'known customer' number or include your Evidence of Identity (EOI) with this application for the following roles:

- Certificate Manager, who is responsible for managing the Certificate such as revoking, reissuing and renewing. The Certificate Manager is the primary contact for correspondence relating to the Certificate and its uses.
- Authoriser, who is the individual who has legal authority to act on behalf of the site/organisation. Examples of an Authoriser include an owner of a business, a trustee of a trust or a partner of a partnership. The Authoriser must authorise any new Certificate Manager to act on the site/organisation's behalf.

Note: The Authoriser may also be the Certificate Manager.

Known customer number

If you have previously provided the Healthcare Identifiers (HI) Service or Services Australia with EOI, you are not required to do so again with this form. You need to supply your existing customer or registration number (HI Service number, a Medicare provider number, Certificate Manager Authority Number or a PKI Registration Authority (RA) number).

Your evidence of Identity

If you are not a known customer, you must provide a document from both the Primary and Secondary groups. Provide a copy of the deed poll or marriage certificate if there is a difference in name on these documents.

Primary group

- Australian passport (including ordinary, frequent traveller, diplomatic, official and emergency)
- Australian birth certificate
- Australian citizenship certificate
- foreign passport
- Australian driver licence
- Australian Government issued proof of age card/photo card
- Australian secondary student identity document (issued by a government agency or Australian school only)
- ImmiCard

Secondary group

- Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) issued Certificate or Document of Identity
- DFAT issued United Nations convention travel document
- Australian marriage certificate
- Australian change of name certificate
- foreign government issued documents (for example, driver licences)

- Medicare Card
- enrolment with the Australian Electoral Commission
- security guard/crowd control photo licence
- evidence of right to a government benefit (Department of Veterans' Affairs or Centrelink)
- consular photo identity card issued by DFAT
- police force officer photo identity card
- Australian defence force photo identity card
- Commonwealth or state/territory government photo ID card
- Aviation Security Identification Card
- Maritime Security Identification Card
- firearms licence
- credit reference check
- Australian tertiary student photo identity document
- Australian secondary student photo identity document
- certified academic transcript from an Australian university
- trusted referees report
- bank or credit card
- other authoritative online sources of evidence verified by a Third Party Identity Provider.

Business entity's evidence

You must provide evidence of the business as an entity and prove the relationship between the business and the Authoriser. The business name on the EOI must match the registered or trading name provided on this form. You need to include one of the following options:

Option 1

An original or certified copy of the notice issued by the Registrar of the Australian Business Register (ABR) bearing the business entity's name, Australian Business Number (ABN) and your name as the business entity's Public Officer.

Option 2

If the notice issued by the Registrar of the ABR cannot be provided, then

- a legal or regulatory document that proves you have the capability to commit the business entity, and
- the business entity's ABN.

Examples for option 2 include (but are not limited to):

- a deed of appointment, or
- another legal or regulatory document which shows you have the capability to commit the business entity (such as a document that names you as a trustee where the organisation is a trust, or as a partner where the organisation is a partnership).

Certified copies of original documents

Copies of original documents must be sent with this form. The copies provided must be certified by an acceptable referee, who needs to complete one Acceptable Referee Declaration Public Key Infrastructure Certificate applications (HW004) form for each person/business entity on this application. This form is available at servicesaustralia.gov.au/pki
