Crisis Payment

A Crisis Payment is money you may be able to get from us if you have experienced an extreme circumstance and are in severe financial hardship.

An extreme circumstance can be:

- family and domestic violence
- prison and mental health care
- emergency events.

If you have experienced family and domestic violence at home and:

- you were forced to leave your home and are trying to start a new home somewhere or
- you stayed in your home and the violent person was taken away.

You have been charged with a criminal offence and had to spend 2 weeks or more:

- in prison or
- in hospital to look after your mental health.

If you were forced to leave your home because of an extreme circumstance like:

- flooding
- fire
- community unrest.

And you are unable to return to your home in the near future.

If any of these have happened to you, it is important that you tell us within 7 days.

You can tell us or claim a Crisis Payment by visiting your local service centre, using your Centrelink online account through myGov, or calling 132 850. Let us know if you need an interpreter and we will arrange one for free.

The money you get for a Crisis Payment is half your normal Centrelink payment that does not include extra payments like Rent Assistance. Crisis Payment is an extra one-off non-taxable payment added to your normal fortnightly payment.

You can find out more in English at servicesaustralia.gov.au/crisispayment

If you need more information you can:

- visit your local Services Australia (Centrelink) service centre
- talk to Services Australia (Centrelink) when they visit your community
- call the Indigenous Call Centre on 1800 136 380.

If you call us, you will need to tell us your Customer Reference Number (CRN) and answer some questions about who you are, so that we make sure it is you.

You can also ask for an interpreter when you call or visit us. We will provide one for free.
