* The term maternity is defined by section 34ZB of the Medical Indemnity Act 2002.

A person is taken, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(c), to have ceased the person's practice as a medical practitioner because of maternity if the person:

- is pregnant, or
- has given birth, or
- is recovering from the pregnancy (including a miscarriage or a stillbirth).

 Private medical practice is defined in subsection 34ZB (5) of the Medical Indemnity Act 2002 to mean practice as a medical practitioner, other than:

- practice consisting of the treatment of public patients in a public hospital, or
- practice for which a Commonwealth, state or territory agency or authority, or a local governing body indemnifies you from liability relating to specified compensation claims, or
- practice conducted wholly outside both Australia and the external territories, or
- practice of a kind specified in the regulations.

Note 1 A person who intentionally makes a false statement in a statutory declaration is guilty of an offence, the punishment for which is imprisonment for a term of 4 years — see section 11 of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959.

Note 2 Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences against the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 — see section 5A of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959.
