

Use this form to claim a Commonwealth Seniors Health Card for yourself and your partner.

When to use this form

The Commonwealth Seniors Health Card gives older Australians access to cheaper prescription medicines, Australian government funded medical services and other government concessions.

To qualify for a Commonwealth Seniors Health Card you (and your partner if they are also claiming) must:

- have reached age pension age
- meet an income test, and
- meet residence rules.

For more information, read the Information you need to know about your claim for a Commonwealth Seniors Health Card (Ci010) (Information Booklet).

If you receive:

- a Centrelink pension or benefit, or
- assistance from the Department of Veterans' Affairs such as:
 - Service Pension
 - Age Pension
 - Income Support Supplement
 - Veteran Payment
 - Commonwealth Seniors Health Card

do not lodge your claim until after the cancellation date.

If your partner is receiving an entitlement from the Department of Veterans' Affairs, you may still be entitled to a card from Services Australia. Contact the Department of Veterans' Affairs for information about entitlements you may get from them.

This card does not cover dependants and/or partners, only the cardholder. If you have dependants or a partner who is not eligible for this card, read the 'Low Income Health Care Card' section in the Information Booklet.

Online services

Completing your claim online is faster and easier.

You can make a claim online using your Centrelink online account through myGov.

Go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/seniorshhealthcard

If you do not have a myGov account, you can create one at my.gov.au and link it to your Centrelink online account.

What else you will need to provide

Important Note: If you are making a claim, you must return this form and all other supporting documents at the same time you lodge your claim form. If you do not return all documents, your claim may not be accepted. The only exception will be if you are waiting for medical evidence or other documents from a third party.

Partner Permitted to Enquire

Allowing your partner to enquire on your behalf, may save you time when dealing with us. It will let you and your partner use more self-service functions online and over the phone.

If you give your partner permission to enquire, it will allow your partner to ask questions about your Centrelink payments and services. They could ask us:

- your current rate of payment
- the reason your payment has stopped
- the reason your payment has gone up or down, for example, income and assets, debt and back payment information.

They can tell us how much you earned, changes in your circumstances and view your details online.

They cannot:

- act on your behalf with Centrelink
- apply for payments for you
- complete and sign forms and statements on your behalf
- come to appointments for you.

You have a right to have your personal information kept private. For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/privacy

Changing your partner's permission to enquire is your choice and you can change this permission at any time.

Important Information: If you think your partner is misusing the arrangement, call 132 850 or visit one of our service centres.

If you are affected by family and domestic violence, call 132 850 Monday to Friday, 8 am to 5 pm, local time and ask to speak to a social worker.
